

Tunis: From 29th October to 1st November 2014

Kram Exhibition Park

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR THE FAIR

ARTICLE 1 : ADMISSION

1- The organiser accepts, in their capacity of exhibitors, all the Tunisian and foreign enterprises renowned for being manufacturers and provides of agricultural and fishing technologies and services, agricultural and fishing entrepreneurs, importers, exporters, exclusive general agents, legal or natural persons interested in the exhibition.

2. Displayed goods, products or services must be admitted in the list of elements allowed to be exposed.

3. The participation is considered definitive when the organiser ratifies the participation form.

4. The admissions are personal and non-transferable. It is stipulated that the signature of a participation form involves a complete payment of the amount that appears on it.

The acceptance of the "participation form" and areas allocation recovers from the exclusive competence of the staff committee which proceed in a compatible way with its organisational requirements.

5. The payment of all the invoices is due before opening of the exhibition. If in this term the area's expenses was not paid, the amount of the invoice will be increased by right and without preliminary formal notice, of 1% of penalty per month of delay, in this consideration, APIA has the right to retain the displayed goods and movable elements belonging to the exhibitor.

6. The payment of the amount must be made in provided time (end of July 2010), in no case after the beginning of the exhibition. The exhibitor can occupy the attributed area with the express condition to have paid the organiser. This right cannot be transferred to thirds.

ARTICLE 2 : WITHDRAWAL

1. The withdrawals must be communicated to the APIA by registered letter or by registered letter or by telegram; at least 60 days before the beginning of the exhibition.

2. The withdrawal notified 60 days before the show beginning allows the exhibitor the refund of the provisional deposit except the registration fee.

3. The withdrawal notified 30 days before the show beginning exempts the exhibitor of royalties and indemnities payment. However the sums paid as deposit remain devoted to APIA.

4. The withdrawal 15 days before the show beginning will let remain chargeable to the exhibitor the full payment of participation charges and indemnities.

ARTICLE 3 : EXHIBITION'S GENERAL TERMS

1. The assembly (building) of stands will begin a week (1) before the official opening of the exhibition and must be ended at midday (12) the day before opening, the stand height must not exceed 2.5 meters except express and written derogation. The administration can refuse modify or make unsettled the installations non-corresponding to the mentioned prescriptions.

• The exhibitor has to occupy the place attributed to until the exhibition's closure.

• Displayed products must not, as possible, be covered during opening hours.
• APIA reserves the right to remove any goods not included within the framework of the exhibition, without any right of compensation by the exhibitors.

• It is forbidden to the exhibitor or the staff of the stand to make in or around their stand, any advertisements for any company or other than theirs or the one they represent.

• It is also forbidden to the exhibitor to let, rent, give to third or transfer its stand.

• Any advertisement; demonstration or excessive request in area around the stand (loudspeakers...) that might disturb the occupants of the nearby stands are strictly forbidden.

3. During the closure of the exhibition

• The dismantling of stands and their evacuation must be done within a delay not exceeding 48 hours from the closure of the exhibition.

• Before the closure of the exhibition it will not be allowed to begin operations is dismantling, nor even to take off already exposed material. Besides, the removal of the material. Besides, the removal of the material has to be accompanied with the establishment of an exit index card which the exhibitor have to remove from APIA's administrative office, if the complete payment was realised. Otherwise, IFT will have the right to retain to retain this displayed goods until the achievement of payment.

• Spent the delay of 1 days, IFT will charge an amount of 50 DT by in each supplementary daytime.

• Exhibitors must return decorations, materials and put in their arrangement in the state they had been given to them. Any deterioration caused by their installation or their goods to the material, building; or occupied floor; will be evacuated and put chargeable to the exhibitors.

ARTICLE 4 : OFFICIAL FORMALITIES

1. Insurance:

Besides the insurance covering objects of exposition, exhibitor must subscribe, at his own expenses, any insurance covering the risks which himself and his staff incurs or make incur to third parties. The organiser is not responsible for any of these risks, especially in case of loss, theft, or any damage.

2. Guarding:

The guarding of stands and their contents is guaranteed only during closing hours. During opening hours, products and materials are under the responsibility of the exhibitor.

3. Custom:

Each exhibitor must accomplish customs formalities for the material and products from abroad. APIA cannot be held responsible for the difficulties that could arise during the accomplishment of these formalities.

ARTICLE 5 : OVERPOWERING OR UNPREDICTABLE CIRCUMSTANCES

In case of overpowering or unpredictable circumstances, that would result by cancelling the show, the participation will be cancelled and the amounts of deposits, already paid by the exhibitors and remaining available after deduction of the expenses engaged by APIA, will be distributed to them in proportion to said payments and clearly admitted that no recourse can be exercised in any way against the APIA.

ARTICLE 6 : OFFICIAL CATALOGUE AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS

It will be distributed to all the exhibitors an official catalogue establishing the list of the participating companies, the type of products they display and the position that they occupy. APIA cannot be considered responsible for errors and recognisable neglects in the advertisements; if the exhibitor does not supply the specific indications, or if these are not exact.

ARTICLE 7 : RULES APPLICATION

By signing their participation form, exhibitors accept the prescriptions of the present rules. Any infringement to the general rules may cause the exclusion of the violating exhibitor.

A compensation must be paid by the exhibitor as damages to repair moral or material damages, undergone by the show. This compensation must be, at least, equal to the participation fee that has to be paid to APIA without prejudice damages which could be asked. On that account, APIA has the right to retain displayed goods and decoration elements belonging to the exhibitor.

In case of contesting and disputes, only the courts of Tunis is competent.

The exhibitors have to respect the clauses of the present general rules